

Do you have what it takes to Mentor an Aboriginal sista?

The Women's Justice Network is currently recruiting volunteers for our mentoring program.

Mentoring is a non-judgemental relationship between two women.

Our Mentors are volunteers who undertake training to gain the tools to best support women who have been affected by the criminal justice system.

If you think you have what it takes to support and empower women to take a new life journey we would like to hear from you.

Please visit our website to register www.womensjusticenetwork.net.au or call 02 8011 0699.

Applications Close 1 March 2019.
